

Enjoy healthy!

Sana stuffed mini peppers are a unique delicacy combining the delicious flavours of the sweet and spicy cherry peppers with the filling of hummus, fresh tofu or smoked tofu. They are very decorative and can be served as an appetizer, with sandwiches and salads or as an accompaniment to many other dishes. Serve chilled.

Hummus stuffed peppers

Hummus is a seasoned chickpea and sesame spread and just might be the best spread that humans have ever invented. This Mediterranean and Middle East dish has been made for thousands of years, and today is loved around the world due to its fullness of flavour and exceptional nutritional value. It has an ideal ratio of proteins, carbohydrates and healthy plant-based fats. Hummus stuffed sweet-and-spicy cherry peppers will enrich any appetizer, salad or sandwich.

Fresh tofu stuffed peppers

Tofu is often called soy cheese as it is made from soy milk. It is an excellent plant-based source of protein, as it contains all the essential amino acids. It has a mild flavour, is low in calories and easy to digest. The fresh tofu in the peppers takes on the sweet and spicy flavour of the cherry peppers, which is sure to please those who love mild flavours.
